Saying goodbye

With a heavy heart we must say good by to a lovely lady. She was a very much loved mother, grandmother, great grandmother, great-great grandmother and a dear friend to many people.

Reba born in Shelby County Indiana, proud to have graduated from St. Joseph's High School in 1936. Not many people, let alone women, graduated at that time. She married Ardell Deiwert in December, 1936.

Reba was a second generation home owner in our park her parents Ed and Stella Shoentrup, bought here in 1958 and were of the "original home owners" Reba and Ardell bought their home here in 1969.

Reba loved Bingo, cards and square dancing until her failing sight and hearing prevented her from participating in these activities. We will miss you Reba!

Two leins have been placed on properties within the HOA. Two members received notices from the Hearing Committee and there are twelve anticipated for next month. The BVA has decided that a second notice will not be issued to those who frequently do not follow the amendments, instead they'll receive a letter to attend the next scheduled Hearing Committee. Two weeks ago Code did a sweep throughout the park dispersing fifty one (51) citations. Since then two further sweeps have occurred with more citations dispersed.
