Old Business- The hall, BVA office and kitchen floors were professionally cleaned by Bob and Rita Joski, a big thank you for their hard work for making our floors shine. The carpet under the pool table will be cleaned at a later date. New flooring has been purchased for the stage and will be replaced.

A new A/C heat unit has been installed in the BVA office. Thank you to Ken VanDaalwyk and Gord Clemens for their work.

New Business – The North Buena Vista board made changes to the 2022 By-laws at their February 17th 2025 meeting and they were posted in the hall, outside the hall and on the web site, on February 20th 2025 for 30 days. They were read out and a discussion was held and added to Article V- E) (attend all meetings, in person, or through unforeseen circumstances a conference call may be used). Article VII C) (Voting may be done by a majority show of hands or ballot vote if the President deems it or a request is made from the floor, a quorum of 15 members need to be present in order to hold a vote) . Motion by Deb Barlow seconded by Bill Grifka that the 2025 By-laws be adopted as amended. AIF

With Don Henry leaving, a new janitor needed to be hired. The question to was put to the members and it was decided that Todd Doornbos would be hired for the job.

Elections- For President of those eligible for that position Barb Marrs, Walter Cook, and Dennis Madge all declined. The position of President was left open until the April meeting. For Secretary Gerri Langille put forth her name, there were no nominations from the floor. Position acclaimed. At this time Sandy Doornbos stepped down from her position as Vice President back to a Director. For the position of Director, volunteering their names were, Deb Barlow, Walter Cook, Juliee Fitze and Dennis Madge. Dennis Madge decided to take his name off the list. Nominated from the floor were Lisa VanDaalwyk, Richard King and Ed Bagley, Nominations closed. Due to vacated positions of the board, it was decided that all those who put forth their names for Director be elected to board. The Directors are Deb Barlow, Walter Cook, Juliee Fitze, Lisa VanDaalwyk, Richard King and Ed Bagley. Barb Marrs was asked and then appointed to the position of Vice President, until the election of March 2026

Bruce Meister installed the newly elected board for 2025-2026.
