Because of a few we must now limit big item pick up. Every household is now limited to 2 items on pick up day. That does not include your regular trash service that is limited to 5 regular cans. Please DO NOT Allow others to use your service by moving their trash to your house. You risk having your service suspended. Everyone is responsible for paying their assessments.

The Buena Vista Adventure, Inc. attorney has starting foreclosures on properties for non-payment of assessments. The BVA has foreclosed on 2 properties with a third one scheduled. Please avoid losing your home by paying your assessments when due.

The BVA does not get the proceeds beyond what was originally owed to us. All foreclosures are handled by Pasco County.

On February 3rd we lost one of our great volunteers and friend. Dwight Langdon peacefully passed away after a courageous battle with cancer. All of us who knew Dwight knew that he was always there to help no matter what. He loved a good game of golf, shuffleboard, pool, Wii bowling bingo and cards. He was right there to offer a hand whenever needed. We sure do miss his delightful laugh and his pleasant personality here in Florida. He will be gratefully missed but never forgotten. R.I.P. Dwight.
